

Grange Park Opera | SURREY

Timber-framed West Horsley Place dates back to the 14th century. The estate was inherited in 2014 by Bamber Gascoigne from his aunt Mary, Duchess of Roxburghe

- |  |  |  |                                |
|--|--|--|--------------------------------|
| 1 Box Office & Welcome Tent                             | 5 Birdbath Garden                         | 10 Duchess lavatories   | Illustration by Theo Creswell  |
| 2 White Wisteria bar                                    | 6 Croquet Lawn (marquee & pavilions 1–5)  | 11 Lavatorium Rotundum (never queues)   |                                |
| 3 Rose Garden(pre-performance bookings & pavilions) | 7 Crinkle-crankle Garden (pavilions 8–13) | 12 A little shop (which we call the Kiosk –a Turkish word, used by Queen Elizabeth I) | 14 Opera house drop-off |
| 4 Mole Lawn (pavilions 6–7)                             | 8 Orchard (marquee & pavilions 16–17)     | 13 THE OPERA HOUSE(which we sometimes call The Theatre in the Woods)                  | 15 Duchess drop-off     |
|  | 9 Walnut Tree marquee                     |  | 16 DUCHESS RESTAURANT   |